MEMBERSHIP LEVELS & SERVICES

The BPIF is the trade association at the heart of British print. Your business is our priority. We provide the highest standard of support to solve problems and drive strategic change, helping our members grow and develop healthy and sustainable businesses.

Our experts specialise in offering practical, value-adding solutions for all areas of your business, ranging from HS&E and compliancy issues to HR workforce planning. Our Lobbying activities amplify your voice to decision-makers in the public sector. We monitor the political agenda on your behalf and identify threats and challenges to the industry. We offer a wide range of opportunities for networking and collaborating on events, and we offer sector-specific support in our Communities of Interest.
