

PRESS RELEASE

2nd November 2010

Christmas Carol Service for Printers

The BPIF has announced that this year's 'Christmas Carol Service' for printers, will be held on Tuesday 14 December at 6.00pm. Along with the BPIF, The Stationers' and Newspaper Makers' Company, trade union Unite and The Newspaper Society will also be supporting the event.

The congregation and St Bride's Choir will sing both traditional and modern versions of Christmas Carols, and industry representatives will give a series of readings from the Nativity story. Mulled wine and mince pies will be served following the service.

Everyone is welcome, however places are limited so all those who wish to attend should contact Heena Bulsara at the BPIF on (020) 7915 8338 or e-mail

Notes to Editors:

The British Printing Industries Federation (BPIF)

The BPIF is the principal business support organisation representing the UK print, printed packaging and graphic communication industry. It is one of the country's leading trade associations. The federation strive to ensure their members' requirements come first. Through listening to their needs they have developed an unrivalled range of products and services that go well beyond those provided by a traditional trade association.

They provide the highest standard of support for printers to grow and develop healthy, sustainable and profitable businesses, aiming to provide an environment geared towards their businesses success. The BPIF offer practical, value-adding solutions for all areas of a print organisation, ranging from Health, Safety, Environmental and Quality issues; with the implementation of HR requirements; provide resolutions of technical or legal issues; as well as advice and support on marketing, sales and finance. This is all delivered by individuals and teams of highly skilled and experienced print industry specialists.

New services recently launched include BPIF Insurance Service and the BPIF Financial Alliance to add to a wide range of business support services including healthcare and pensions. They also offer a wide range of opportunities for networking both regionally and nationally, including prestigious events, special interest groups and popular short courses on a wide range of topics.
