“Stationers not Stationary”

1st June - 31st August

The Stationers' Company Summer Exhibition will take place at the Guildhall Library from Thursday, 1 June to Thursday, 31 August. There will be three lectures within the exhibition programme which will reflect the history and the future of this distinguished Livery Company.

This exhibition looks at the Worshipful Company of Stationers and Newspaper Makers' exceptional and intriguing history spanning 600 years at the forefront of printing and publishing.

You may be surprised to know that today over 90% of its 900 members are directly involved in the Content and Communications Industries.

Stationers' Hall in the heart of the City of London remains a focal point for these industries - a very busy place.

Since the 16th century Livery Companies have been at the centre of the apprenticeship movement. Times and regulations have changed but Education and Training remain core activities. The Stationers' Company supports all levels of education and facilitates pathways to employment. A key focus is their innovative approach to Digital Media Education at Stationers' Crown Woods Academy.

Tickets for each lecture cost £5.00 per person plus a 90p booking fee if you book online and the exhibition is free. Booking is essential for all events.
